Dear Ms Hamlyn

NHS Blood and Transplant Organ Donation

I write to ask whether your organisation has considered how it will proceed in the event of Scotland voting for independence.

I would be interested to know how many blood and organ donations have been given to patients resident in Scotland in recent years.

Finally, I would be interested to hear what discussions you have held with the Scottish Government with regards to blood and organ donations in an independent Scotland.

I look forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely

N. Milne
